Phil -

I received this today regarding an event occurring next week. I called him back and left a message. I advised him to call either myself or you back and I gave him your number.

I will keep trying to reach him thru tomorrow.

Whip

Lane / Arnold -

I received the attached phone message from Matt Wilson who is the regional security manager for Williams Energy. I reached out to him and found they are having a landowner meeting on Wednesday April 6th at the Inn at the Commons from 1800 - 2000 hours regarding the Jordon Cove Project.

This meeting is a landowner only meeting and there has been chatter on the internet regarding protests. The landowners have been sent invitations and will be required to present ID to gain access to the meeting. The meetings will be Monday in Coos Bay, Tuesday in Roseburg, Wednesday Medford and Thursday -K-Falls. The main chatter about protests and disrupting the meeting have been about Roseburg.

Please contact him at (405) 727-1872. I would suggest 2 officers on OT 1700-2000 - But it's not about me anymore....

The websites where information about possible protests are;

Southern Oregon Rising Tide
Cascadia Forest Defenders
Pipeline Awareness Southern Oregon
Stop Jordon Cove

Ruthie / Jill - Can you also check the sites and see what you can find. We may be able to glean more information after the first two meetings.

Thanks,

Whip

Matt Wilson, Regional Security for Williams Energy, called our Patrol Lt and wanted to talk about a "landowners' meeting" in Medford on Wed 4/6. They were supposed to have met in Coos Bay on Monday, meeting in Roseburg tonight (Tuesday) and K Falls on Thursday.

Did you hear anything about it, or know anything about it ?

I've checked all the websites that I know of: Southern Oregon Rising Tide, Stop Jordan Cove, Cascadia Forest Defenders, google, Facebook etc

So far, I haven't found anything on line regarding problems for this meeting. Several of the groups named below have Facebook pages but none of them mention anything about meetings in Coos Bay, Roseburg or here.

I have an email out to Roseburg/Douglas County to see if they're aware of anything.

I also contacted Capt Chapanar, Coos Bay PD. Capt Chapanar said he wasn't aware of any meetings in his city on Monday and that usually he's contacted in advance regarding these types of meetings.

It was on the radio recently, but I only caught a little bit of it. There was some todo about canceling it and holding one on one meetings, but some group said no way, we are going through with it ..but that's all I heard. I think the city has been involved with stuff, because it's not familiar to me.

Subject: Landowner Meeting - April 6

So far, I haven't found anything on line regarding problems for this meeting. Several of the groups named below have Facebook pages but none of them mention anything about meetings in Coos Bay, Roseburg or here.

I have an email out to Roseburg/Douglas County to see if they're aware of anything.

I also contacted Capt Chapanar, Coos Bay PD. Capt Chapanar said he wasn't aware of any meetings in his city on Monday and that usually he's contacted in advance regarding these types of meetings.

I received the attached phone message from Matt Wilson who is the regional security manager for Williams Energy. I reached out to him and found they are having a landowner meeting on Wednesday April 6th at the Inn at the Commons from 1800 - 2000 hours regarding the Jordon Cove Project.

This meeting is a landowner only meeting and there has been chatter on the internet regarding protests. The landowners have been sent invitations and will be required to present ID to gain access to the meeting. The meetings will be Monday in Coos Bay, Tuesday in Roseburg, Wednesday Medford and Thursday -K-Falls. The main chatter about protests and disrupting the meeting have been about Roseburg.

Please contact him at (405) 727-1872. I would suggest 2 officers on OT 1700-2000 - But it's not about me anymore....

The websites where information about possible protests are;

Southern Oregon Rising Tide
Cascadia Forest Defenders
Pipeline Awareness Southern Oregon
Stop Jordon Cove

Ruthie / Jill - Can you also check the sites and see what you can find. We may be able to glean more information after the first two meetings.

Thanks,

Whip

These are tactics that are currently being used to forcibly insert their narrative into the conversation. There has long been a call for a "Standing Rock" action by the Klamath Tribe in Klamath County. There have also been actions to identify and scout the pipeline route and pumping facility location by numerous other environmental groups over that last year. We can expect these actions to continue leading up to, and during the proposed construction of the Jordan Cove project.

Protestors disrupted a Medford Chamber of Commerce Meeting to protest the Jordan Cove pipeline project.

These are tactics that are currently being used to forcibly insert their narrative into the conversation. There has long been a call for a “Standing Rock” action by the Klamath Tribe in Klamath County. There have also been actions to identify and scout the pipeline route and pumping facility location by numerous other environmental groups over that last year. We can expect these actions to continue leading up to, and during the proposed construction of the Jordan Cove project.

Reminder:

We still have openings in our National Sheriffs’ Association Social Media Development and Crisis Management class next week!

Bryan - I won't be getting into town until midnight Tuesday. However, Pat Royal and Mark Pfeifle will be getting in much earlier Tuesday. I think they'll be reaching out on Tuesday (or here on this email) to determine the best place to meet on Tuesday to talk.

Nick,

Following your email chain this morning. Thought I would forward this out to you. We sent this out earlier this week to the task force regarding an action and subsequent social media posts from Southern Oregon Rising Tide, and Earth First Journal.

I also have a link to an online article discussing Klamath tribes council member calling for a "Standing Rock" in Oregon. I will try and send that on later this evening.

Also, I'd like to meet up sometime after you make it into town Tuesday for introductions and hand shakes before we all get busy Wednesday morning at the class.

Protestors disrupted a Medford Chamber of Commerce Meeting to protest the Jordan Cove pipeline project.

<https://earthfirstjournal.org/newswire/2018/11/07/protestors-disrupt-medford-chamber-of-commerce-meeting-to-demand-the-chamber-condemn-the-jordan-cove-lng-pipeline-project/#more-61605>

<https://www.facebook.com/sorisingtide>

These are tactics that are currently being used to forcibly insert their narrative into the conversation. There has long been a call for a “Standing Rock” action by the Klamath Tribe in Klamath County. There have also been actions to identify and scout the pipeline route and pumping facility location by numerous other environmental groups over that last year. We can expect these actions to continue leading up to, and during the proposed construction of the Jordan Cove project.

Reminder:

We still have openings in our National Sheriffs’ Association Social Media Development and Crisis Management class next week!

Divya is working on it. It appears to be a business that focuses on protesting issues that concerns their group. It has a business license out of Corvallis. I'll get you the info as soon as it is prepared.

Sorry for the delay.

In short, SO Rising Tide (<http://sorisingtide.org/welcome/about/>) is a group of individuals from Jackson & Josephine counties who have banded together to combat issues surrounding climate changes. In the past their focus has predominantly been on pipelines however it seems like they touch a little on social issues. The first attachment is from the "About" section of their webpage.

I ran the group through the OR Business Registry webpage and it does appear they are a legit business. I have attached the registry hit. The business representative is Leonard Higgins out of Corvallis. We do not have any contacts with him. I have attached his TLO packet which has some phone numbers for him.

I have also attached their FB page. Aside from yesterday's post about MPD I reviewed their recent posts and did not locate anything of interest. I did locate the attached article mentioning the Greenway & COVID.

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

Their webpage does not list any of the participants.

Their FB page does not list any administrators or moderators. I could go through the people who liked the page and claim to live in Medford but I don't think that would be accurate.

I am still working on it.

<https://twitter.com/sorisingtide/status/1276330304865579008...>: "This week we witnessed the Medford Police Department intimidate unhoused people out of their camps in the middle of the night, trash peoples stuff, and tell media that they were "offering services" #ACAB #HomesNotJails"

Southern Oregon Rising Tide: "At midnight on Monday night, the Medford Police Department went into the camps of people sleeping along the Bear Creek Greenway, an area where the Jackson County Sheriff and local police departments have said that they would provide sanitation and food to people who are sheltering in place there through the pandemic (more on that here <https://mailchi.mp/d07d094e8eca/may2020>). During a heat wave-- and as COVID 19 cases rise across Southern Oregon-- the Medford PD woke people up to "provide resources", ran people's names for outstanding warrants, arrested some people, and then came back at sunrise with dumpsters to haul away "abandoned" camps and garbage. Volunteers and legal observers were out to try to document and monitor the operation and support our houseless neighbors as much as we could.

MPD says this wasn't a camp sweep because they didn't issue any camping citations; they were just out "providing resources" and cleaning up garbage. Whether or not we call it a sweep, the end result is largely the same: people are intimidated and traumatized in the middle of the night, their possessions and homes are thrown into dumpsters, and many are left without support or a place to go. When peoples' survival is against the law, it only makes sense that they end up with criminal records and warrants, leaving them even more vulnerable for harassment from law enforcement.

Furthermore, there is no legitimate claim to "providing services" when there are no affordable housing units, shelter beds, or legal camping for the majority of people who are being pushed out of their safest option.

We'll be sharing more soon, including more videos from Monday night and Tuesday morning, but we want to update our community on what we're seeing and hearing from folks on the Greenway because it's such a stark contrast to the public relations efforts of the Medford Police Department.

TAKE ACTION: The Medford Police Department is supposed to be accountable to and overseen by the City Council. Email the Medford City Council at council@cityofmedford.org and tell them that instead of traumatizing and displacing people in the middle of a pandemic, the City should be investing in housing resources and services that are trauma-informed and respect basic human dignity."

Southern Oregon Rising Tide

36 mins ·

SHOW UP TOMORROW (THURSDAY) NIGHT!
Starting at midnight on June 23rd, Medford Police 'clean-up operation' along the Bear Creek Green where houseless residents had been asked to stay in place during the pandemic. Despite MPD's insistence this operation was about "offering services" and not displacement or enforcement, volunteers witnessed arrests and many campgrounds were destroyed

On Thursday, July 2nd, the Medford City Council will be meeting for the approval of a city-funded temporary campground for unsheltered folks. It's important that they hear that this expanded option should not be used as an excuse for increased MPD enforcement, and we must ensure that houseless individuals have a voice in the policy changes that impact them.

TAKE ACTION: You can give testimony about this at the Medford City Council meeting on Thursday, July 2nd, 6pm. The meeting is held at Medford City Hall (1000 Broadway Street)

If you can't attend the council meeting, you can send your comments to council@cityofmedford.org by 12pm on July 2nd.

proposed city-funded temporary campground for unsheltered folks. They need to hear that this expanded option should not be used as an excuse for increased MPD enforcement and that houseless individuals need a voice in policy and services that impact them.

1 INCREASE TRAUMA-INFORMED APPROACHES AND REDUCE CRIMINALIZATION OF HOUSELESSNES

- Stop sweeps and illegal camping tickets through remainder of the pandemic.
- If 'clean-up efforts' or sweep-like actions do occur during the daytime and with at least 24-hour notice.
- Reduce law enforcement presence during social outreach activities.
- End increased MPD enforcement of exclusion zones.

CALL TO ACTION: MEDFORD TEMPORARY CAMPGROUND

Medford City Council will be voting Thursday, July 2nd on a proposed city-funded temporary campground for unhoused folks. They need to hear that this expanded option should not be used as an excuse for increased MPD enforcement and that houseless individuals need a voice in policy and services that impact them.

1 INCREASE TRAUMA-INFORMED APPROACHES AND REDUCE CRIMINALIZATION OF HOUSELESSNESS

- Stop sweeps and illegal camping tickets through remainder of the pandemic.
- If 'clean-up efforts' or sweep-like actions do occur during the daytime and with at least 24-hour notice.

- Reduce law enforcement presence during social outreach activities.
- End increased MPD enforcement of exclusion zones during the daytime and with at least 24-hour post

EXPAND SHELTER/CAMPING OPTIONS WITH THE INCLUSION OF INPUT FROM IMPACTED INDIVIDUALS. DO NOT USE THE CREATION OF A CAMPGROUND AS AN EXCUSE FOR INCREASED CRIMINALIZATION OR ENFORCEMENT

- Include impacted individuals in decision-making leadership roles at the designated campground.
- Provide an accessible grievance process for campground residents that is overseen by a neutral third party.
- Adequately provide for transportation, ADA needs, and escalation procedures that avoid law enforcement engagement for non-violent issues.
- MPD must provide clear and publicly posted information on allowable camping to those still sheltering elsewhere, and resolve conflicting information among officers.

CONTINUE IMPLEMENTING NEW AND VARIOUS OPTIONS THAT ADDRESS COMMUNITY NEEDS

- Support and fund peer-led programs and Housing Solutions over transition models.
- Support and fund a crisis-response program like Crisis Medford to decrease law enforcement response to violent emergencies.
- Follow Right to Rest legal precedent by ending enforcement of illegal camping laws while adequate housing options are being developed.

Good response from Kevin about the emails. We're getting many from the Cascade Christian parents and administration in opposition.

Two posts went up today. See below for the post and the graphic they shared.

They also shared this video from last week's efforts: <https://vimeo.com/434446834>

We should prep Council on this as their call to action is to speak at tomorrow's Council meeting.

Friends,

During the pandemic, Southern Oregon Rising Tide has joined other community members in Jackson County in connecting with folks who are sheltering in place on the Bear Creek Greenway, a park and bike path area that runs between Central Point, Medford, and Ashland. In March, the Jackson County Sheriff's Department and Emergency Operations Center (EOC) encouraged houseless people to stay out of city centers, where the risk of catching and spreading COVID 19 would be higher. This suggestion came with a promise that Jackson County would temporarily end sweeps of the Bear Creek Greenway, maintain bathrooms and handwashing stations throughout the twenty miles of the bike path, and deliver paper bag meals to people camping out there. Partner organizations in the Rogue Valley gave Jackson County thousands of dollars to fund these meals.

Through our own monitoring and sharing info with other community organizations, here's what we've found out is actually happening:

- We've heard reports from nearly a dozen houseless folks that there has been spoiled meat, moldy sandwiches, and possible cases of food poisoning.
- The meals served on the Greenway are the same ones served in the Jackson County Jail, which contracts with a notorious company called Aramark. Learn more on Aramark in this article from Prison Legal News and another from Mother Jones.
- Some of the porta-potties are not being emptied. Most do not have soap or hand sanitizer. Of the few handwashing stations that have been set out, most don't have water.

without seeing county vehicles or food. Many people staying on the Greenway weren't informed that there were supposed to be daily meals delivered

- We've heard from several service organizations in the area that the Jackson County Sheriff's department will resume camp sweeps at the end of May, on the premise that there will be increased fire danger and a decreased need for shelter in place restriction

The Bear Creek Greenway

Regarding the spoiled food--a violation of public health and basic human dignity-- the Sheriff and EOC have responded to complaints and committed to improving the quality of food that is delivered to people sheltering in place on the Greenway. In order to hold these agencies accountable, SORT will be increasing our monitoring and outreach on the Bear Creek Greenway. While we are out there, we are going to do what we can as a small crew of volunteers to supply much-needed sanitation items, including handwashing stations and hand sanitizer.

Want to help? Please click here donate to our badass friends so they can continue producing hand sanitizer and also purchase supplies for more handwashing stations. If you are interested in joining our volunteer effort please email us at sorisingtide@gmail.com. We are most needing people who can walk or bike sections of the Greenway and check on the status of sanitation

You may be wondering: Why is this climate group talking to me about homelessness? In our community, the frontlines of the climate and housing crises are inseparable. Southern Oregon has some of the highest rates of unsheltered homelessness in the nation. There aren't enough shelter beds for everyone who needs them, and people are fined and trespassed for sleeping outside. People's right to simply exist-- to sleep and survive-- is threatened by unjust city and county ordinances. Meanwhile, local officials, including the Jackson County Sheriff's Department, have frequently cited fire danger as a reason that they need to sweep people's camps and fine people who have no money to start with. We also know that our unsheltered neighbors are especially impacted by the extreme weather shifts that are linked to climate change in our region, from winter storms to heatwaves and thick, choking smoke.

Rather than blaming the people who are most impacted by the crises of our times, we need to do our part to call out the bad actors that are creating and compounding these crises-- whether it be a Canadian company peddling an explosive pipeline through our drought-stricken forests, or local agencies who are making the lives of unsheltered people harder during a time when they are already dealing with so much hardship. We need to have each other's backs and amplify the voices of people who were struggling long before conditions became unmanageable even for the "haves" in our society.

In Solidarity,
Southern Oregon Rising Tide

Southern Oregon Rising Tide

ABOUT

Southern Oregon Rising Tide is dedicated to promoting community-based solutions to the climate crisis and taking direct action to confront the root causes of climate change. We are based in the mountains and rivers of rural Southern Oregon, with most of our members living on stolen Takelma land.

Our mission: Southern Oregon Rising Tide is a volunteer-run, non-hierarchical group committed to resisting capitalism and building social change through fun and creative disruptions. We use a range of tactics as diverse as all of our skill sets. By building deep relationships with our community, the land, and with other organizations, we create opportunities to take action that are accessible, joyful, and have direct impact on the issues we work on.

Our issues and values: SORT was created in 2015 in response to the proposed Pacific Connector LNG Pipeline through Southern Oregon. In continuing to fight the pipeline in coalition with other groups and organizations, we focus on building a culture of direct action and elevating the voices of rural and indigenous people whose lives and communities are most impacted by environmental destruction and climate change in Southern & Southwest Oregon.

In 2017, our focus expanded, but our principles remain the same. Climate justice transcends borders and is ultimately entwined with indigenous sovereignty and self-determination, and with thinking beyond capitalism. We believe in the inherent dignity of all people, and also in the value of all non-human life including plants, animals, watersheds and forests. In action, we strive to build alliances and show up for those who are most impacted by oppression. We seek to resist fascism, capitalism, xenophobia, racism, transphobia, homophobia and patriarchy. We recognize that a community of mutual aid and solidarity is a potent force in opposing a system that thrives on division and hate.

How we organize: SORT is a collective of community members living primarily in Jackson and Josephine Counties, though we welcome participation from our neighbors all the way from the Klamath to the Coos and Umpqua watersheds. Collective members share work and decision-making power. Our collective meets twice monthly and holds public educational events or actions monthly. Interested in getting involved? Have an idea for an event or action? Want our support in something you or your group are already working on? Email us at sorisingtide@gmail.com

I know it's your day off but I'm certain you're checking your emails.

I am assuming you know about the Rise and Resist Southern Oregon Facebook page and are a member.

Also I am assuming you know about this drive-in movie that is happening Friday at the YMCA that's part of Juneteenth?

I'm not trying to steal your job but a lot of us around here are wondering what Friday is going to be like so I'm doing my own sneaking since you have Monday's off. I am not as good as you though!

No worries! Yes, I am a member of that group.

The movie showing is the only event I have located so far in Medford.

There is an all day event in Ashland on Friday.

There is a leadership meeting on Tuesday with all of the various different group heads. I hear they will be putting out more info after that meeting.

So far, nothing crazy planned for Medford this week & over the weekend.

Elise,

Hi, there. I just had a friend text me an article from lawenforcementtoday.com that sort of makes an attempt to string all of the arsonists together, but I know of nothing official. I'm not involved directly in the fire response or investigations, so I'm not currently in the loop to know any specifics.

The deadline on the article is "Sources: Series of wildfires on West Coast may be "coordinated and planned" attack".

Hope things are going well.

Stay safe,

Hey all,

With all the fires the state has going on, rumors are rampant that Antifa is running around starting these fires. We have a rumor circulating that the Douglas County Sheriff's Office has 6 in custody for Arson (which is NOT true). In doing research on fires recently that have Arson arrests (through media releases), it looks like the arrestees were all local to the areas they started the fires, so likely not a travelling band of Antifa. I haven't seen anything from a credible LE source stating they believe these fires are Arson, but my command staff would like to put feelers out to the rest of Oregon. I imagine some may be Arson, but so far in Douglas County they are being attributed to downed power lines from the windstorm we had two nights ago. Any information you would be willing to share on the fires in your areas would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Subject: Antifa Arson Rumors

Hey all,

With all the fires the state has going on, rumors are rampant that Antifa is running around starting these fires. We have a rumor circulating that the Douglas County Sheriff's Office has 6 in custody for Arson (which is NOT true). In doing research on fires recently that have Arson arrests (through media releases), it looks like the arrestees were all local to the areas they started the fires, so likely not a travelling band of Antifa. I haven't seen anything from a credible LE source stating they believe these fires are Arson, but my command staff would like to put feelers out to the rest of Oregon. I imagine some may be Arson, but so far in Douglas County they are being attributed to downed power lines from the windstorm we had two nights ago. Any information you would be willing to share on the fires in your areas would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Subject: Occupy Hawthorne
Date: Monday, September 14, 2020 12:12 PDT

I am aware of the makeshift shelters/outreach that has popped up on the south side of Hawthorne Park. I am working on a solution to get that area vacated. However, I want full support from City Council and City Manager before we go in and force people out. If you receive complaints about this issue, please forward them to my email or voicemail. I am compiling a list.

Your officers will still respond if there is a call for service that necessitates a response. However, there is no immediate need for Officers to do a walk through.

Subject: Hawthorne Park Camp Complaint
Date: Monday, September 14, 2020 14:05 PDT

Chief,

I wanted to make you aware of the complaint I took this morning regarding the camp situation at Hawthorne Park. The caller, Jacob Baracker, is a Medford resident who lives near Hawthorne Park. He wanted to pass on through me and hopefully up to the City Council his frustration with the current occupation of Hawthorne Park. He is a very companionate and empathetic individual who truly wants to see the houseless community get the help they want and need, but he said that is not what is occurring at Hawthorne Park. He told me he follows Rising Resist Southern Oregon on social media and believes this established campground inside Hawthorne Park is being broadcast as a location for houseless individuals from outside our area to come occupy. I can verify this as the first tent site I visited this morning was a couple from Sacramento who told me they were not displaced by the Alameda fire, but were told this was a good place to camp.

I shared with Jacob the outreach we did this morning, offering to take anyone living in the park to the local established emergency shelters and the refusals we received. He is frustrated but fully supports our efforts and hopes the City is able to take action to move these folks from Hawthorne Park to a designated shelter.

Is it true that rising tide or the Clarence Carr group planned the Hawthorne homeless situation before the fire? I vaguely remember something coming up last week.

Carr & company started their homeless outreach at Hawthorne Park before the fire. They started roughly three weeks ago.

We may want to consider having a service fair come to Hawthorne Park, publicize it and then the people who refuse to leave have been offered other alternatives.

I agree. We did a Resource Fair at RR Park and had 70 people show up. The same supportive services agencies would likely jump at this opportunity.

Cautiously optimistic a well. I'm more concerned with the fraud aspect of the election than the actual vote tallies. As in 2016 I think the media polls are wrong and again they are making the mistake of not acknowledging the difference in enthusiasm between our President and "Bite-Me". I also feel pretty good about Bentz, Thatcher, Wallen and even Skarlatos.

Thanks, Tad. I feel the same way. But it's nice to know that I have that option now. What a relief. And so weird. ??
Praying like crazy today. I have practice at Dom's tonight. We will probably forgo practice for politics though. I am cautiously optimistic. Maybe I just watch too much conservative politics though. Those rallies and car/truck rallies have been extremely encouraging. Quite a difference between conservative people who want to support their President on their own versus BLM and Antifa who get paid to destroy. Hoping for the best in Oregon as well. Losing Dennis Richardson a few years ago was huge. We need at least one person with a brain in that administration.
How are you feeling about things?

I think if you like your RAV4, then you consider keeping it. I would always praise Toyota for their durability and longevity. But when fixed, after a minor collision, your RAV should still retain good value. Toyota's are famous for that too!

I've thought about that. Certainly Megan has been bugging me to get a new (er) one. I wonder if this will make it less valuable when I sell it. Megan's RAV was totaled from a fender bender a few years ago because I guess the undercarriage was pushed in. I doubt this is that bad. I'll think about it. I have loved this car since I got it. Just the right size and I've made so many trips up and down I 5. And it only has 165,000 miles on it. The newer RAVs are bigger, but maybe they have smaller ones. Thanks for the thought. I will definitely consider it. I have never been so attached to a car. ??

One of my co workers backed into my car in the parking lot today. Poor little RAV. It was hit by a 2015 RAV. Her insurance company recommends lithia body and paint so I went over there after school just to make sure I can drive it. I have an appointment at 11 am on Wednesday to go back to see them. Guess I have to get a loaner car s as me all that. Hey maybe they can buff out all the little dings while they're at it... and maybe paint it and old fashioned green color that I like so much. What do you think?

Just sent this to Jeannie Ray Timoney who is the superintendent of schools for the Archdiocese of Portland

Ms. Ray-Timoney,

I work at Sacred Heart School in Medford and was just informed that Our Lady of the Lake in Lake Oswego has been open for K-3 for awhile and will be open through 8th grade starting in January.
Since I was under the impression that we are all shut down per the Archdiocese, I was wondering how Our Lady of the Lake is able to be open.

There are doctors everywhere, including Dr. Fauci, who now say that keeping kids home is dangerous to students. They are not learning and the suicide rate for children is skyrocketing across the country.
Why are we following the mandates of our governor when it comes to the safety and wellbeing of our children?
This governor believes that children do not have a right to life prior to being born and has funded statewide abortion.
This is also a woman who allowed BLM and Antifa to protest, loot and burn down Portland every night during the summer with not a word about the risk of spreading covid.

There is no scientific evidence that keeping children home will keep anyone safe. Children rarely contract covid and when they do, they always recover. If someone is concerned about infecting other members of their families, then those children may stay home and continue distance learning.

Why are the Catholic Schools in NY and NJ open? Their covid spread is much higher than ours.
Governor Cuomo closed the public schools, but then reopened them a week later when the Archdiocese of NY stated that they would keep their schools open.
Why are you not doing the same?

Are we here for the children or are we here just to follow a governor's mandate that has no science to back it up.
I have spoke to many parents who are distraught about what is going on with their children. Depression is ubiquitous.
Isn't it time to stand up for our children and parents who are paying us from their hard earned salaries to educate their children?

Sincerely,
Chris Sinclair
Medford OR

It was mandated by me...voluntary for her. Does that make sense? I told her she couldn't see her cat again unless she went into some kind of a program. I told her I was tired of propping her up for the last 15 years...giving her advice that she continued to ignore...drinking too much, not exercising...all the stuff that was definitely affecting her depression. at least from a physical standpoint. This place is based in science but also affiliated with the 7th Day Adventists. Every hike on Saturday, they were greeted with "Good Sabbath." I told Megan she just has to take away what she wants to take away. They did all Vegan meals and really pushed that, but that wouldn't really work for Megan. They also said she should listen to classical music a few times a week. That's probably not going to happen either. Hoping that this kick starts a better, happier life. She has to continue the momentum. She's going back to work tomorrow.

Subject: 12/2 Vigil Event
Date: Friday, November 27, 2020 00:06 PST

Good Morning,

I just wanted to inform you all I am monitoring & tracking an event scheduled for 12/2 from 1545-1700 at the Courthouse (100 S Oakdale). The event is described as a vigil for Aidan Ellison (Stratford Inn homicide victim). The event is supposedly taking place during what organizers believe the suspects first court appearance.

The event was created late yesterday evening and already has 52 people listed as attending and an additional 106 interested. The event has been shared over numerous social media platforms to include Facebook (numerous different local activist groups/ pages), Instagram, Twitter, and SnapChat.

The event is being hosted by SOU Student Activist Coalition, Rogue Action Center, Rogue Climate and SOEquity. These are all known groups from protests earlier this year.

Earlier yesterday evening there was a vigil for Ellison at Stratford Inn. In addition, over the past 48 hours there was a small group at the Ashland Plaza who were camping to raise awareness for the homeless community. Eviction notices were placed on their tents causing a small stir. Some of our known individuals from Hawthorne & protests were in attendance (Keziah Anderson, Clarence Carr, Melissa Jones, and others) at the Ashland events.

I will continue to monitor and advise as this unfolds. Here is the full description of the event from the Facebook page:

It is with sorrow and solemn duty that we must again make a statement addressing the unjust, violent and deadly treatment of Black lives in this country and in our community. The following statement details the tragic death of Aidan Ellison, please read and share at your own discretion.

In the early hours of Monday, November 23, 2020, a 47-year-old white man escalated a confrontation with Aidan Ellison, a 19-year-old Ashland resident and a young Black man with his entire life ahead of him. This conflict ended with the 47-year-old man, Robert Keegan, shooting Aidan in the chest and killing him. While we do not know all of the details, the Ashland Police Department has stated that the reason this man confronted Aidan in the first place was because he was playing music too loudly.

We must now add playing music to the already-too-long list of things you cannot do while being Black in America.

The Southern Oregon Coalition for Racial Equity was founded as a direct result of a tragic and needless death of a Black man, George Floyd. This past summer, we marched in the streets and demanded our voices be heard—and we were often met with the false idea that violence against Black bodies does not happen in our “sleepy little towns” in Southern Oregon. Now, we have the devastating proof that existing while Black is dangerous here too.

While we could spend the next few paragraphs detailing the ways in which Blackness is ostracized, fetishized, and demonized in Southern Oregon, the leadership of SOEquity is honestly tired of repeating the same things over and over and over again as it too often goes ignored by our white neighbors who smile to our faces and claim to support us until we do something that they do not like—that they cannot control—and then we are insubordinate and aggressive and need to be taught a lesson. And sometimes that lesson is deadly.

Instead, we will focus on action.

Aidan’s murderer has been arrested and his first court hearing is scheduled for Wednesday, December 2 at 4:00pm. SOEquity, in partnership with the SOU Student Activist Coalition, will be hosting a vigil in front of the Jackson County Court House starting at 3:45 pm. We ask that you join us on Wednesday and at every subsequent court hearing for Robert Keegan to remind our community that Aidan will not be forgotten, and that justice must be served. Link to Vigil Event: <https://www.facebook.com/events/851828662247787>

The following Wednesday, SOEquity has joined the efforts of BASE and SOBLACC to discuss the policing of the Black Community in Southern Oregon. We ask that any Black members who wish to have their voices heard attend and that our allies attend in silent support to witness and help hold the Jackson County Sherriff and Police Chiefs of Medford, Central Point, and Ashland accountable.

Over the next few weeks, we expect resistance to these efforts. We anticipate that those who wish to uphold white supremacy in our community will make statements like Aidan's murder has nothing to do with race or the cops weren't involved with this, why do you care? or justice will be served, there is no reason to protest. We expect to see further stories from our local news outlets focusing on the good deeds of the white murderer. We may also see attempts to attack Aidan's character in some sick attempt to justify his death.

With each of these moments of resistance, we are calling on our community to stand strong and push back against these messages. When your neighbor tries to remove race from this story, remind them and yourself of the ways in which society portrays Black men as inherent threats. When a news outlet focuses on how upstanding of a citizen Robert Keegan is, hold them accountable and ask why the painting a positive picture of a murderer is newsworthy. When our city and county leaders insist that justice will be served, remind them that it will—and that the people will be here every step of the way to ensure that it does.

Our actions moving forward will not bring back Aidan Ellison. It will not heal the devastating hurt his family and loved ones are feeling. But, it may prevent another senseless death from occurring in our community. That is why we persist.

With Love and Power,

SOEquity Leadership

Sheriff,

Info only. This vigil will be held tomorrow at 3:45 on the courthouse steps.
We will have extra staffing on duty.

This is the BLM/Hawthorne crew so although we are not expecting issues we are paying attention. Lt. Graham will be reaching out to court staff shortly.

Subject: Vigil Planned at Courthouse Dec 2
Date: Tuesday, December 01, 2020 16:29 PST

Mr. Sjothun,

There is a vigil planned tomorrow afternoon from 3:45-5:00 on the County Courthouse steps. This is in response to the shooting death of Aidan Ellison, a black man, in Ashland last week. This was the result of an altercation with a white suspect and was not an officer involved shooting. At this time, there are approximately 150 interested in attending according to facebook.

It has been difficult to determine if this is strictly a vigil or a protest, but we are increasing our manpower just in case. According to Chief O'Meara the protest portion is planned for Ashland later tomorrow evening. Some of the organizers are from the BLM group that occupied Hawthorne Park in September. We have adequate staffing available and have cameras still in place from the protests this summer.

I do not feel that City staff are in danger, however if I were going to make one suggestion it would be for City staff working on campus to move their personal vehicles to the City Hall parking lot or Ivy Street after lunch or by 3:00. Staff would be heading to their vehicles in the midst of this group breaking up and heading to Ashland and I think it would be best to avoid that area. I am more than happy to coordinate that via the Department Heads if you wish.

I will continue to update you all as intel comes in.

You bet! If you hear of any talk in the future don't hesitate to reach out. I typically don't send out bulletins until I have gathered all information I can but I am always willing to share what I have at the time of your inquiry.

Good Morning,

Not much to note over social media this morning. The event is up to 168 going and 384 interested. There was nothing new posted in the discussion portion of the event page. The event is still being shared widely over different social media platforms.

There were no new posts on the Eugene FB page surrounding today's events.

Unless there is anything pressing, I will see you at 1500 upstairs.

Not much... social media was relatively quiet last night. I did note many people are sharing the event over different social media platforms.. that is new.

The discussion board of the event page does not have any recent posts. I am not seeing anything on the known BLM pages.

At this time the counter group who has attended previous BLM protests have not publically acknowledged the event.

Lt. Graham has an ops plan and we will be staffing a command center (smaller scale than usual).

We have a camera up facing the courthouse, we will also have two people in the courthouse and a couple in the parking lot.

At this time I think it is just a waiting game... there are so many unknowns... how many ppl will show, who will emerge as the leaders, will they march, will this turn into anti LE...

If you want to reach out after this has kicked off my cell is (541)840-3727. Calling is preferred.

Thank you! You bet, I am happy to help! Even though we have a couple towns separating us we are a team!

I still have yet to see anything about the group moving to Ashland on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Reddit, NextDoor or SnapChat Did that info come from Ryan Mallory? I contacted Ryan who gave me some info... based on my prior experiences with Mallory some of his intel is sprinkled with his thoughts as opposed to facts.

I checked the Eugene protest page and didn't see any new posts about today's event.

If I see anything or hear of any movement to Ashland during the event I will let you know ASAP. It will be interesting to see if this actually ends at 1700. At previous events people tend to linger into the evening. Unlike the summer months it will start to get chilly so hopefully people head home.

We make a good team!

We have roughly 25-30ish still hanging out at the courthouse... we are watching from the camera. No live feeds. Probably going to pack it up pretty soon here.

If anyone has any question MPD Lt. Graham (2L1) or Sgt. Antley (2S4) will be best the point of contact. Both can be reached over the radio.

Vigil for Aidan Ellison calls for white allies to step up

Accountability. Allyship. Justice. History. Community. Words echo through the crowd who gathered to remember Aidan Ellison, bouncing off teachers, students, city officials, friends, parents and toddlers of all races. Bare fingers clutch the edges of hand-written signs and shoes scuff the edges of chalk messages on the sidewalk.

Vigil for Aidan Ellison calls for white allies to step up

Accountability. Allyship. Justice. History. Community. Words echo through the crowd who gathered to remember Aidan Ellison, bouncing off teachers, students, city officials, friends, parents and toddlers of all races. Bare fingers clutch the edges of hand-written signs and shoes scuff the edges of chalk messages on the sidewalk.

TACTICAL INFORMATION UNIT

Information Only

Rogue Climate, Southern Oregon Coalition for Racial Equality, and Student Activist Coalition are hosting a vigil for Aidan Ellison (APD homicide victim, AP20-2576). When initially organizing the event, organizers believed the scheduled date and time was the suspect's first court appearance. Organizers have since been made aware that this is not accurate, however they are still holding the vigil as planned.

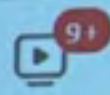

The event was created on 11/25 and has been shared over several social media platforms. Roughly four hours after the event was created 100 individuals responded as attending the event. Local media outlets have covered the event.

As of this afternoon 160 people have responded as attending the event. An additional 372 are interested in the event. Many of the known protesters & agitators from events earlier this year have stated they will be in attendance tomorrow. Clarence Carr is heavily involved in events surrounding Ellison. Carr has met with Ellison's family and has assumed a self-proclaimed activist role on their behalf.

It should be noted tension appears to be building due to Ellison's homicide. There has been a small encampment group traveling around Ashland advocating for the homeless community and there has been chatter surrounding the suicide of Michael Ewell. Ewell committed suicide earlier this year (AP20-1518), however people are now claiming APD & SOU covered up aspects of Ewell's death.

APD received information from Ryan Mallory advising protesters from Eugene will be attending this event. I was unable to locate any information that deems this claim as accurate.

If you receive any tips or information regarding this event please forward them to me.

Hi Bill
Just got this text from a friend who has a friend who is in DC right now. She took 3 flights to get to Washington DC from Oregon. She said on one of the legs, the entire plane sang the national anthem.

From a friend...
"Media is lying about the Trump parade. There was no violence. Antifa dressed as Trump supporters and a few of them tried to get into the capital building. The patriots stayed on the grass either praying , shouting "stop the steal" or "we the people" or singing " God bless America".
It's is not crazy. 1000's of people standing around talking, laughing. Three full streets of patriots marching to the capital. A sea of non- violent marches. The elderly, children, teenagers. Families. Seriously do not believe any news channel. I am here. Firsthand visual. What may happen tonight with Antifa I do not know. The Elipse Park was packed. The national monument entire grass area was packed.
Antifa tried to entice Trump supporters and patriots to storm the building. They did not! Antifa did . This was a Calm, kind enormous group of people. The news is lying!!!!!"

Chris Sinclair.

Hi all,

This is an area we are tracking very closely and I'll offer some comments and clarifications I received about Eugene's rules post Boise. Just so you know, I never took the LSAT, though I did stay in a Holiday Inn pre-pandemic.

Eugene has a prohibited camping provision in our code (EC 4.815) that we have continued to enforce post Boise, but less so during the pandemic. More on that another time. There are a number of key distinctions between the Boise ordinance and Eugene's prohibited camping provision. First, the Boise ordinance made it an arrestable offense to sleep in public. A violation of Eugene's prohibited camping provision is a violation only (i.e., a fine), with no possibility of arrest or jail time so no criminal sanction. Second, the Boise ordinance did not just prohibit camping; rather, it prohibited a broad range of activities, including sleeping and lying in public. Eugene's prohibited camping provision is specific to setting up a campsite, it does not prohibit sleeping or lying in public. Finally, in the Boise case the evidence showed that primarily religious shelters were available for the unhoused, which caused the court some First Amendment concerns. Eugene has a number of options for legal camping – including camping on private property with an owner's permission and the car camping and rest stop programs – that are not affiliated with any religion. These differences are what we relied upon to successfully defend an 8th Amendment challenge to Eugene's prohibited camping provision in 2014.

If you follow the link to the prohibited camping code, the next section is our permitted overnight sleeping which might also be helpful.

Have a great Wednesday!

[EXTERNAL ?]

Hello,

I know that there are lots of changes happening with what/when/how a city can regulate homelessness and city camping.

Our City Council hasn't really been briefed on the results of the Boise case and where we are now. I attended a webinar last summer (can't remember if it was LOC or CIS) and have notes from that, but I was wondering if any of you know of some other resources that would be a great jumping off point to help me bring the Council up to speed.

I'm thinking we may want to write an ordinance to update City code. I'd like to start the discussion in tomorrow's Council meeting.

Thank you.

No - it's a video. Siskiyou Street News did delete comments that weren't in their favor.

Just wanted to briefly follow up on this..

The Chauvin trial will begin on 3/8. As expected, this case is still being talked about across many different social media platforms. Our local group has not recently made mention of the trial.

In addition, Robert Keegan's pretrial conference was continued to 3/8. Our local group is still very interested in the Ellison case and discusses it weekly.

Our known BLM/ protest group is currently fixated on COVID in the jail and LE wearing (or not wearing) masks. They have been frequently making calls/ complaints to OSHA.

I imagine once the mentioned trials begin their focus will shift. I will keep an eye on this and advise.

I just received the following info from the Hennepin Co DA's office..

The Minnesota Judicial Branch sets trial dates for all cases in Minnesota state court. Based on the filings and corresponding recent media reports, it appears that the Chauvin trial is currently set to begin on March 8, 2021.

Good Morning,

Here is what I was able to find...

As Sgt. Antley mentioned, Chauvin's attorney requested the trial be moved from March 8th to June 7th (due to COVID). From what I can see, the trial is still set to occur on March 8th. I reached out to the Hennepin Co DA via phone and email but have yet to hear back. I reached out to the Fusion Center who advised per their Critical Infrastructure Analyst the trial will be occurring on March 8th.

Generally speaking, people are talking about the trial on all major platforms of social media. Hashtags associated with this incident are still trending on social media. Some of the major platforms I have been monitoring include Reddit, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and TikTok.

From what I can see, our local activists have not publically mentioned the trial. I still follow the BLM groups that were prevalent last year (BLM ABC's, Rebels for Justice, Rise and Resist, BLM Southern Oregon, Rogue Free Press etc.) and the key participants. Some of the trending topics from our local groups include mask wearing (or lack thereof) by any LE official, resources for the houseless community, local LE harassing the houseless community, CAHOOTS etc.)

Over the past few months the SOEquity group has evolved and taken a leadership role amongst the groups in our community. They partnered with Justin Rosas to hold a press conference surrounding the Ellison case, recruited volunteer's to help with the Hawthorne Park Aid station, took over the storage unit Clarence Carr and friends had filled with donations, and seem to have gained a lot of popularity amongst the groups we have been monitoring. Many of you may remember this group as they hosted a march in Medford last summer. The march was peaceful and did not yield any incidents caused by participants. You can read more about SOEquity and their efforts here <https://www.soequity.org/>

I do monitor social media on a daily basis and will look out for any local mention of the trial and planned civil unrest.

I am available in person or by phone if you would like to discuss this or any concerns you may have.

I was just looking at an upcoming date for The trial of Derek Chauvin and the three other officers involved in the George Floyd incident. It's set for March 8th. I saw where attorneys have requested to push the date back but I did not see where the date had been changed. As far as I can tell the date remains March 8th. As you know, I believe these officers will be acquitted of the murder charges and if they are convicted of anything at all, it will be some lesser form like manslaughter II or criminally negligent homicide. This is likely to spark another large scale set of protests. We need to be ready for that.

Divya, this week if you could please try to do some digging around on social media to see if anyone is talking about this? Also, maybe you can find a more accurate court date?

I really think this is going to be a problem for MPD. The only question in my mind is how much of a problem and when. Don't forget Proverbs 22:13.

As you know, I believe these officers will be acquitted of the murder charges and if they are convicted of anything at all, it will be some lesser form like manslaughter II or criminally negligent homicide. This is likely to spark another large scale set of protests. We need to be ready for that.

Good Morning,

Here is what I was able to find...

As Sgt. Antley mentioned, Chauvin's attorney requested the trial be moved from March 8th to June 7th (due to COVID). From what I can see, the trial is still set to occur on March 8th. I reached out to the Hennepin Co DA via phone and email but have yet to hear back. I reached out to the Fusion Center who advised per their Critical Infrastructure Analyst the trial will be occurring on March 8th.

Generally speaking, people are talking about the trial on all major platforms of social media. Hashtags associated with this incident are still trending on social media. Some of the major platforms I have been monitoring include Reddit, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and TikTok.

From what I can see, our local activists have not publically mentioned the trial. I still follow the BLM groups that were prevalent last year (BLM ABC's, Rebels for Justice, Rise and Resist, BLM Southern Oregon, Rogue Free Press etc.) and the key participants. Some of the trending topics from our local groups include mask wearing (or lack thereof) by any LE official, resources for the houseless community, local LE harassing the houseless community, CAHOOTS etc.)

Over the past few months the SOEquity group has evolved and taken a leadership role amongst the groups in our community. They partnered with Justin Rosas to hold a press conference surrounding the Ellison case, recruited volunteer's to help with the Hawthorne Park Aid station, took over the storage unit Clarence Carr and friends had filled with donations, and seem to have gained a lot of popularity amongst the groups we have been monitoring. Many of you may remember this group as they hosted a march in Medford last summer. The march was peaceful and did not yield any incidents caused by participants. You can read more about SOEquity and their efforts here <https://www.soequity.org/>

I do monitor social media on a daily basis and will look out for any local mention of the trial and planned civil unrest.

I am available in person or by phone if you would like to discuss this or any concerns you may have.

I was just looking at an upcoming date for The trial of Derek Chauvin and the three other officers involved in the George Floyd incident. It's set for March 8th. I saw where attorneys have requested to push the date back but I did not see where the date had been changed. As far as I can tell the date remains March 8th. Divya, this week if you could please try to do some digging around on social media to see if anyone is talking about this? Also, maybe you can find a more accurate court date?

I really think this is going to be a problem for MPD. The only question in my mind is how much of a problem and when. Don't forget Proverbs 22:13.

Good Afternoon,

Ofc. McCurley fielded the attached call advising of a protest on 3/6 at 1800 hours.

The protest is scheduled to occur at the jail and is in response to the COVID outbreak at the jail. The event is being organized by Siskiyou Abolition Project. This event is not being advertised on social media (or other public channels) and is being shared solely via direct message.

Siskiyou Abolition Project is a known local organization against prisons. Their Facebook page has 139 likes to include many of our known protest players (Emily Mann, Melissa Jones, Graham Trim, Clarence Carr, Trinity Shaw-Stewart, and others). They frequently post calls to action and were very vocal about their displeasure about MPD's involvement during the Hawthorne Park encampment.

Our local BLM/ protest pages have not publically made mention of this event.

Our pole cam is still up and running however it does not cover any portion of the jail. I am not familiar with the jail security cameras but could work on getting access if you deem appropriate. I can also contact IT and see if we can place a camera in one of the courthouse offices.

I will scan other social media platforms and see if there is any mention of this event so we can try and gauge a number of possible participants.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Subject: 3/6 Protest

Good Afternoon,

Ofc. McCurley fielded the attached call advising of a protest on 3/6 at 1800 hours.

The protest is scheduled to occur at the jail and is in response to the COVID outbreak at the jail. The event is being organized by Siskiyou Abolition Project. This event is not being advertised on social media (or other public channels) and is being shared solely via direct message.

Siskiyou Abolition Project is a known local organization against prisons. Their Facebook page has 139 likes to include many of our known protest players (Emily Mann, Melissa Jones, Graham Trim, Clarence Carr, Trinity Shaw-Stewart, and others). They frequently post calls to action and were very vocal about their displeasure about MPD's involvement during the Hawthorne Park encampment.

Our local BLM/ protest pages have not publically made mention of this event.

Our pole cam is still up and running however it does not cover any portion of the jail. I am not familiar with the jail security cameras but could work on getting access if you deem appropriate. I can also contact IT and see if we can place a camera in one of the courthouse offices.

I will scan other social media platforms and see if there is any mention of this event so we can try and gauge a number of possible participants.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Unfortunately no.

I just checked a variety of social media platforms and none of them mention this event. I did not locate any hints about a secret event or anything similar in nature. I scanned some of our local known players pages and did not locate anything that eludes to the event.

I contacted the FBI to see if there is something I am missing or a way to guesstimate the number of participants but they were not able to come up with anything.

Good Afternoon,

Ofc. McCurley fielded the attached call advising of a protest on 3/6 at 1800 hours.

The protest is scheduled to occur at the jail and is in response to the COVID outbreak at the jail. The event is being organized by Siskiyou Abolition Project. This event is not being advertised on social media (or other public channels) and is being shared solely via direct message.

Siskiyou Abolition Project is a known local organization against prisons. Their Facebook page has 139 likes to include many of our known protest players (Emily Mann, Melissa Jones, Graham Trim, Clarence Carr, Trinity Shaw-Stewart, and others). They frequently post calls to action and were very vocal about their displeasure about MPD's involvement during the Hawthorne Park encampment.

Our local BLM/ protest pages have not publically made mention of this event.

Our pole cam is still up and running however it does not cover any portion of the jail. I am not familiar with the jail security cameras but could work on getting access if you deem appropriate. I can also contact IT and see if we can place a camera in one of the courthouse offices.

I will scan other social media platforms and see if there is any mention of this event so we can try and gauge a number of possible participants.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

I just checked a variety of social media platforms and none of them mention this event. I did not locate any hints about a secret event or anything similar in nature. I scanned some of our local known players pages and did not locate anything that eludes to the event.

I contacted the FBI to see if there is something I am missing or a way to guesstimate the number of participants but they were not able to come up with anything.

Subject: Possible Protest at the Jail 3/6

There is a scheduled protest at the jail over COVID issues. It is supposed to take place on 3/6 at 1800 hrs. There has not been any social media traffic about this, but it is being shared through direct messaging. We do not know how many people might attend. JCSO has not planned anything in response to this.

LTV knows about this and we will place a portion of his section on the MRT Team on standby in case something develops. They will be on standby at 1730 hrs and we will wait and see how the event develops for deployment.

We will monitor how it develops and respond as needed. Team 7 will be in 30 minutes early, Team 3 will plan of working over (as needed), and a portion of LTV's MRT group will start on stand-by at 1730 hrs.

The following is what I know at this point (From Divya):

The protest is scheduled to occur at the jail and is in response to the COVID outbreak at the jail. The event is being organized by Siskiyou Abolition Project. This event is not being advertised on social media (or other public channels) and is being shared solely via direct message.

Siskiyou Abolition Project is a known local organization against prisons. Their Facebook page has 139 likes to include many of our known protest players (Emily Mann, Melissa Jones, Graham Trim, Clarence Carr, Trinity Shaw-Stewart, and others). They frequently post calls to action and were very vocal about their displeasure about MPD's involvement during the Hawthorne Park encampment.

Our local BLM/ protest pages have not publically made mention of this event.

Our pole cam is still up and running however it does not cover any portion of the jail. I am not familiar with the jail security cameras but could work on getting access if you deem appropriate. I can also contact IT and see if we can place a camera in one of the courthouse offices.

I will scan other social media platforms and see if there is any mention of this event so we can try and gauge a number of possible participants.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

The attached is just in case something does develop. We will have Quint and Mark watch the jail starting at about 1715 hrs and we'll make determinations based on that. Team 3 is prepared to stay late if needed and Team 7 will be in 30 minutes early. LTV has some folks on standby if a response is needed. I'll be down at the PD around 1700 hrs.

I just checked a variety of social media platforms and none of them mention this event. I did not locate any hints about a secret event or anything similar in nature. I scanned some of our local known players pages and did not locate anything that eludes to the event.

I contacted the FBI to see if there is something I am missing or a way to guesstimate the number of participants but they were not able to come up with anything.

The attached is just in case something does develop. We will have Quint and Mark watch the jail starting at about 1715 hrs and we'll make determinations based on that. Team 3 is prepared to stay late if needed and Team 7 will be in 30 minutes early. LTV has some folks on standby if a response is needed. I'll be down at the PD around 1700 hrs.

Please let me know you received this.

Subject: Possible Protest at the Jail 3/6

There is a scheduled protest at the jail over COVID issues. It is supposed to take place on 3/6 at 1800 hrs. There has not been any social media traffic about this, but it is being shared through direct messaging. We do not know how many people might attend. JCSO has not planned anything in response to this.

LTV knows about this and we will place a portion of his section on the MRT Team on standby in case something develops. They will be on standby at 1730 hrs and we will wait and see how the event develops for deployment.

We will monitor how it develops and respond as needed. Team 7 will be in 30 minutes early, Team 3 will plan of working over (as needed), and a portion of LTV's MRT group will start on stand-by at 1730 hrs.

The following is what I know at this point (From Divya):

The protest is scheduled to occur at the jail and is in response to the COVID outbreak at the jail. The event is being organized by Siskiyou Abolition Project. This event is not being advertised on social media (or other public channels) and is being shared solely via direct message.

Siskiyou Abolition Project is a known local organization against prisons. Their Facebook page has 139 likes to include many of our known protest players (Emily Mann, Melissa Jones, Graham Trim, Clarence Carr, Trinity Shaw-Stewart, and others). They frequently post calls to action and were very vocal about their displeasure about MPD's involvement during the Hawthorne Park encampment.

Our local BLM/ protest pages have not publically made mention of this event.

Our pole cam is still up and running however it does not cover any portion of the jail. I am not familiar with the jail security cameras but could work on getting access if you deem appropriate. I can also contact IT and see if we can place a camera in one of the courthouse offices.

I will scan other social media platforms and see if there is any mention of this event so we can try and gauge a number of possible participants.

Gents,

Thanks for helping out with the possible protest at the JCSO jail on Saturday 3/6/21. It is supposedly set to kick off at 1800 hours. The group(s) are protesting the inmates at the jail that have covid etc and asking for their release.

Stand by starts at 1730. We have a 30 minute response time from the text or call you'd receive from me around that time. I'll text you all tomorrow at about 1730 to let you know more. There is a full operations plan in place. I don't expect this to actually occur but we are at least set just in case.

Questions or concerns give me a ring or text.

Thanks,

Sgt T Venables

PLEASE DO NOT SHARE THIS INFORMATION OVER SOCIAL MEDIA

In response to the Jackson County Jail covid-19 outbreak, Siskiyou Abolition Project and friends are planning a noise demo at the jail on Saturday, March 6, at 6PM to demand release of medically vulnerable people, adherence to covid safety protocols, adequate PPE, and the release of people who are being held in custody pre-trial during the Covid pandemic.

It will be a socially distant activity, and we will ask participants to follow Covid safety measures, including wearing a mask.

Please bring your own noisemakers and signs!

Subject: RE: regarding homeless being bused in from Eugene and Portland.
Date: Tuesday, March 16, 2021 14:04 PDT

Hello,

Thank you for reaching out. Your email has been shared with the Mayor, all City Councilors and appropriate City staff.

The City is actively working to create equitable solutions to address challenges related to homelessness in our community. A few examples of our efforts are listed below:

Homeless System Action Plan

City Council approved the Homeless System Action Plan which produced five recommended goals and 32 actions to address homelessness in Medford. Council also allocated $100,000 towards the implementation of the Action Plan and $50,000 to create a homeless reunification program to reunite homeless individuals with family or friends outside of Medford, as appropriate.

The City has been working diligently to implement the Homeless System Action Plan, which specifically addresses a variety of focus areas, including the support of new affordable housing options, a variety of shelter and transitional housing options, coordination of efforts with local non-profits and social service providers, as well as identification and implementation of prevention programs. Click here to view the Homeless System Action

Plan<https://www.ci.medford.or.us/SIB/files/Planning/City%20of%20Medford%20Homeless%20System%20Action%20Plan%20\(final%20

Cleanup Efforts

The City's trash collection is up over 30 percent from last year's record total. Often times the areas being cleaned have bio-waste and drug paraphernalia that have to be handled and disposed of carefully, making the cleanups not only hazardous from a human perspective, but also from a health perspective.

We recently completed a cleanup effort along the Bear Creek Greenway near Railroad Park and under the 10th and 12th street bridges. In total, 70 cubic yards of garbage was removed from the areas and the creek itself. Click here for more information on this cleanup effort.<<http://www.ci.medford.or.us/News.asp?NewsID=7920>>

While statewide COVID-19 restrictions have delayed some cleanup efforts, we expect to remove the mounting trash and hazardous waste, in coordination with Jackson County and Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT), in the upcoming weeks and months.

Urban Campground

The City acts as both a facilitator and funder of the Urban Campground, an entry-level tent and pallet shelter of more than 60 sites available for homeless individuals coming directly from the streets and referred by the Medford Livability Team. Guests receive meals as well as access to wrap-around social services from community partners.

Project Turnkey

Recently, the Oregon Community Foundation announced that the City and Rogue Retreat (co-applicants) have been selected to receive a grant to transform a motel (47 units) into transitional housing for Alameda Fire victims. Click here to read more about this initiative.<<http://www.ci.medford.or.us/news.asp?newsid=7942>> There are also four units available for discharged houseless patients in need of non-congregate re-cooperative care.

The City recognizes the importance of addressing homelessness in our community and we are actively working to create programs and opportunities such as the examples listed above. This certainly isn't all the City is working on. You can learn more about our homelessness initiatives by visiting our website, click here<<https://www.ci.medford.or.us/Page.asp?NavID=4309>>.

At this time, City staff is engaging with community partners and individuals to discuss and gather feedback on the current draft of the prohibited camping ordinance. City Council is scheduled to review the draft ordinance at the City Council meeting on April 1.

We encourage you to subscribe to our monthly eNewsletter which provides information on City news, projects and events. Click here to subscribe.<<https://www.ci.medford.or.us/Page.asp?NavID=4488>>

Thank you again for reaching out.

Best Regards,

<EXTERNAL EMAIL Click Responsibly!>

I can tell from personal experience that homeless people from Eugene and Portland are being bused to here with a one way ticket. Our homeless have increased by 300%. Take a look when you drive anywhere in the city of medford and surrounding city's. Many law abiding citizens and police are left to deal with what you have not took the time to fix. ANTIFA and BLM is here in medford and you have ignored that homeless were being offered money and drugs to start fire's in our community. You have not investigated an of these facts. Are you waiting for our community to be just like Portland? There is someone in our community that has all the evidence and you turn a blind eye to it and ignore it. I will be moving out of Southern Oregon and many others are also because it's becoming law less here and many families are moving because they don't want to be a statistic in your lawless Jackson County.

Subject: Request from Matt Roberts

LT.,
A longtime acquaintance of mine (and of yours I'm sure), Matt Roberts reached out to me today. Matt, as a resident of Medford is outraged with the misinformation, pushback and blatant lies that he feels are being spread by the likes of the Siskiyou Street News/Southern Oregon Equity types of groups. Matt believes that the majority of Medford is in support of laws regulating camping on the greenway and believes that this majority has been silent too long. He feels that the counter groups are loud and therefore get the press and the influence. He has started a Greenway Recovery Project group on Facebook and is dedicated to getting the word out about how he believes the city should pass the proposed Prohibited Camping ordinance along with long term sustainable policies that will keep the greenway usable for residents.

I was very clear with Matt that I while I wear the uniform I am not going to endorse one side or another and that it is not our position to appear to support one side or another. However, he has asked me for statistics and background for the LVT and greenway operations.

I have provided him, as I would anyone who asked, with information that has been put out in public meetings or via my emails to the public that cover our work on the greenway: My canned citizen response as to the state of the greenway, Eric Mitton's letter to the NHLC and the Livability Team outreach #'s (how many housed, referred, etc.).

What I have not given him is information that we have not released, such as our Livability Encampment Survey numbers and the report on that survey. I would like to get these numbers to him along with the percent increase and mapping of those camps.

He is also looking for the amount we spend on policing the homeless, which is a large task. I am just not sure how much I should give him. I want to remain publically neutral in an official capacity.

Any thoughts would be helpful.

Thanks

Matt believes that the majority of Medford is in support of laws regulating camping on the greenway and believes that this majority has been silent too long. He feels that the counter groups are loud and therefor get the press and the influence. He has started a Greenway Recovery Project group on Facebook and is dedicated to getting the word out about how he believes the city should pass the proposed Prohibited Camping ordinance along with long term sustainable policies that will keep the greenway usable for residents.

I was very clear with Matt that I while I wear the uniform I am not going to endorse one side or another and that it is not our position to appear to support one side or another. However, he has asked me for statistics and background for the LVT and greenway operations.

I have provided him, as I would anyone who asked, with information that has been put out in public meetings or via my emails to the public that cover our work on the greenway: My canned citizen response as to the state of the greenway, Eric Mitton's letter to the NHLC and the Livability Team outreach #'s (how many housed, referred, etc.).

What I have not given him is information that we have not released, such as our Livability Encampment Survey numbers and the report on that survey. I would like to get these numbers to him along with the percent increase and mapping of those camps.

He is also looking for the amount we spend on policing the homeless, which is a large task. I am just not sure how much I should give him. I want to remain publically neutral in an official capacity.

Any thoughts would be helpful.

Thanks

Stephany,

Here is what we have ready to send at this time:

Greenway fires are identified as either vegetation fires, trash fires, grass fires, brush fires or illegal burns, which are all terms used to refer to fires resulting from human activities such as cooking, camping, "warming fires", incendiary acts, accidents, and undetermined fire causes.

In the year 2020, we had approximately 220 fire-related incidents along the Greenway and related areas. Related areas include those along the Greenway, and that also front or are adjacent to, the Greenway, the freeway, and associated sections of the city.

Please let them know that we are available to answer any questions they may have,

Subject: City of Medford Homelessness Initiatives

Hi Matt,

Thanks again for reaching out. Below is a short recap of some of the initiatives the City has been working on to address homelessness in our community. Feel free to reach out if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Kristina

The City is actively working to create equitable solutions to address challenges related to homelessness in our community. A few examples of our efforts are listed below:

Homeless System Action Plan

City Council approved the Homeless System Action Plan which produced five recommended goals and 32 actions to address homelessness in Medford. Council also allocated $100,000 towards the implementation of the Action Plan and $50,000 to create a homeless reunification program to reunite homeless individuals with family or friends outside of Medford, as appropriate.

The City has been working diligently to implement the Homeless System Action Plan, which specifically addresses a variety of focus areas, including the support of new affordable housing options, a variety of shelter and transitional housing options, coordination of efforts with local non-profits and social service providers, as well as identification and implementation of prevention programs. Click here to view the Homeless System Action Plan<https://www.ci.medford.or.us/SIB/files/Planning/City%20of%20Medford%20Homeless%20System%20Action%20Plan%20\(final%20revision%20June%202020\).pdf.pdf)>

The City's trash collection is up over 30 percent from last year's record total. Often times the areas being cleaned have bio-waste and drug paraphernalia that have to be handled and disposed of carefully, making the cleanups not only hazardous from a human perspective, but also from a health perspective.

We recently completed a cleanup effort along the Bear Creek Greenway near Railroad Park and under the 10th and 12th street bridges. In total, 70 cubic yards of garbage was removed from the areas and the creek itself. Click here for more information on this cleanup effort.<<http://www.ci.medford.or.us/News.asp?NewsID=7920>>

While statewide COVID-19 restrictions have delayed some cleanup efforts, we expect to remove the mounting trash and hazardous waste, in coordination with Jackson County and Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT), in the upcoming weeks and months.

Urban Campground

The City acts as both a facilitator and funder of the Urban Campground, an entry-level tent and pallet shelter of more than 60 sites available for homeless individuals coming directly from the streets and referred by the Medford Livability Team. Guests receive meals as well as access to wrap-around social services from community partners.

Project Turnkey

Recently, the Oregon Community Foundation announced that the City and Rogue Retreat (co-applicants) have been selected to receive a grant to transform a motel (47 units) into transitional housing for Alameda Fire victims. Click here to read more about this initiative.<<http://www.ci.medford.or.us/news.asp?newsid=7942>> There are also four units available for discharged houseless patients in need of non-congregate re-cooperative care.

The City recognizes the importance of addressing homelessness in our community and we are actively working to create programs and opportunities such as the examples listed above. This certainly isn't all the City is working on. You can learn more about our homelessness initiatives by visiting our website, click here<<https://www.ci.medford.or.us/Page.asp?NavID=4309>>.

At this time, City staff is engaging with community partners and individuals to discuss and gather feedback on the current draft of the prohibited camping ordinance. City Council is scheduled to review the draft ordinance at the City Council meeting on April 1.

Hello,

Matt Roberts reached out to me this morning and identified himself as the owner of the Greenway Recovery Project<<https://www.facebook.com/savemedford>> facebook page. Matt asked if the City had any information they'd like shared with the page audience regarding efforts along the Greenway and the proposed prohibited camping ordinance.

I thanked Matt for reaching out and asking the City to be part of the conversation and provided him with the following information:

* We're currently working on dispelling misinformation on the following topics:

- o The draft prohibited camping ordinance is not Eric Mitton's and was created at the direction of the City Council. The City Council will be the deciding factor on next steps of the ordinance.
- o The maximum penalty of the draft ordinance is not six months in jail.
- o The Urban Campground now has 62 spaces, not 48 as reported earlier this week.

* I provided Matt with yesterday's shelter availability stats and stressed that this number fluctuates day-to-day. I also provided the 30 yard dumpster stat to provide an idea of how much garbage the City is collecting on a regular basis.

* I reiterated that oral requests are not being done in person for City Council meetings at this time and encouraged individuals interested in providing public comment to email publiccomments@cityofmedford.org<<mailto:publiccomments@cityofmedford.org>>.

* Finally, I provided a recap of some of our current initiatives related to homelessness and beautification of our public spaces. See attached.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

KJ

Hello. Imagine having out of town visitors and taking them into Medford only to be embarassed by the graffiti and homeless tent cities and endless trash along the greenway. What are you thinking? How about you all take a trip to Berkeley and Oakland CA and see what Medford is becoming. SHAME on you. Your taxpaying citizens cannot even enjoy a walk on the greenway, which they pay for. Time to get tough and stop being co dependent and enabling. Medford is trashing beautiful Southern Oregon.

Lt.,

Per our conversation yesterday we can expect to see a decent number of individuals speaking during the public comments portion of the 4/1 Council Meeting. The Greenway Recovery Project has created an event asking citizens who are for the new ordinance to come and speak. At this time there are 9 individuals going and an additional 41 interested. If the chambers are full the participants plan on holding a "vigil" outside. Participants have been encouraged to bring signs.

The counter group (against the ordinance) is aware of the 4/1 meeting and the Greenway Recovery Project's plans to assemble. They too plan on speaking and having coffee outside City Hall. As usual with this group they are not very organized. There organization has occurred in the comments section over multiple different social medial platforms. The group has mentioned their displeasure with the CM, Mayor, and Attorney Mitton, see attached. Our known Hawthorne Community players have been at the forefront of this side's organization.

As the date nears I will give you an update. If you have any questions before then please don't hesitate.

rvpigdrop Last night at the @cityofmedfordor city council meeting, the new Mayor (and ex-KKKop) Randy Sparacino voted to give extra raises to 11 city employees already making over $100k while attempting to make using tents (even in WINTER) illegal: 6 months in jail & $1000 fines! Last September Medford lost over 2000 dwellings in the horrific #AlmedaFire. Majority of fire victims are still displaced. This is in ADDITION to covid, economic catastrophe, small business closures, and a 70% rise in drug overdoses. Is this the decisions of a Mayor or cares about his community? Hell nah bro! Kkkops in office are just as lethal! PLEASE SIGN PETITION in @riseandresistoregon bio! #WildFires #OregonFires #CareNotCops #AlmedaFire #MedfordOregon #SouthernOregon #MedfordsWarOnThePoor #StopTheSweeps #EndEvictions #CancelTheRent #Fuck12

Medford began evicting individuals from their encampments along the Bear Creek Greenway last week. As Sydney Dauphinais reported in a piece for Jefferson Public Radio, the local NPR affiliate:

"Medford Police said the people who were evicted 'accepted transitional shelter options, or made other arrangements.' [But according to local housing advocates,] the provided options were insufficient... 'other arrangement' seems code for 'we just pushed them elsewhere along the greenway' or 'they're now sleeping in a parking lot' or 'they now have a hotel voucher that they can't use because they don't have an ID.'"

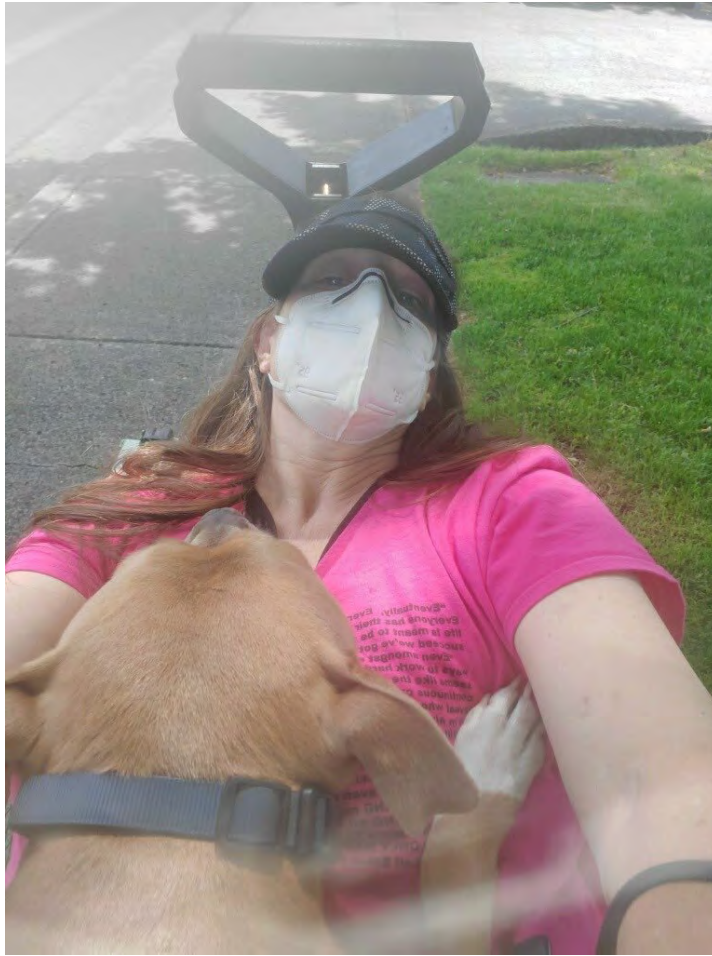

Medford police evicting an encampment on May 6th

Last week's evictions took place while Jackson county was at the "Extreme Risk" level for coronavirus. The Center for Disease Control and the Oregon Health Authority warn cities that evicting encampments during the pandemic poses a threat to public health, and unhoused individuals were originally told to shelter-in-place along the Bear Creek Greenway for the duration of the pandemic. Displacing these communities in the middle of the pandemic is unacceptable.

Once evicted from their encampments, where are people supposed to go? This is the question we've heard from many unhoused neighbors, including our friend Christine-Marie.

Christine-Marie currently lives in a tent along the Greenway, but she has tried to follow the guidance of Medford's new ordinance — which allows for individuals to sleep up to 24 hours on city sidewalks, provided that they do not use a tent.

Here is Christine-Marie sleeping in a small wagon with her service animal on Poplar Drive in Medford. "Cars are driving by and I'm getting ugly looks," she said. "How are people supposed to sleep like this?"

In response to unhoused neighbors asking us where are they allowed to sleep now that police raids have started along the Bear Creek Greenway, the Housing Justice Alliance wrote a letter to the City of Medford, asking them to provide a map outlining the public properties where unhoused individuals are legally allowed to sit, lie down, and sleep. The City of Pendleton provided their unhoused residents with similar map, but Medford has not yet.

The uncertainty of where to go alongside the elevated threat of police harassment and evictions is taking its toll on our unhoused neighbors. "People are really stressed out from being evicted and the anticipation of being evicted," says Melissa Jones, who runs the Stabbin Wagon Mobile Harm Reduction in Medford. "Not knowing where they're going to go after they get raided, people are having mental health challenges."

Our unhoused neighbors were told to shelter-in-place along the Bear Creek Greenway for over a year, and it is inhumane to evict people with only a few days notice.

Call to action! We must continue to ask the City of Medford for a detailed map of where people are legally allowed to lie down and sleep within city limits.

Please write to Medford City Manager Brian Sjothun and Deputy City Manager Kelly Madding, requesting that they release a detailed map that clearly outlines where unhoused individuals are legally allowed to rest. Write to Kelly.Madding@cityofmedford.org and Brian.Sjothun@cityofmedford.org, and make your subject line "Where are people supposed to go? Our unhoused neighbors need a detailed map."

We are grateful for your continued support of our fight against Medford's inhumane ordinance. Please continue to share articles and images from the frontlines of Medford's War on the Poor. Siskiyou Street News and Rise & Resist Southern Oregon raised over $2,000 for

Medford began evicting individuals from their encampments along the Bear Creek Greenway last week. As Sydney Dauphinais reported in a piece for Jefferson Public Radio, the local NPR affiliate:

"Medford Police said the people who were evicted 'accepted transitional shelter options, or made other arrangements.' [But according to local housing advocates,] the provided options were insufficient... 'other arrangement' seems code for 'we just pushed them elsewhere along the greenway' or 'they're now sleeping in a parking lot' or 'they now have a hotel voucher that they can't use because they don't have an ID.'"

Medford police evicting an encampment on May 6th

Last week's evictions took place while Jackson county was at the "Extreme Risk" level for coronavirus. The Center for Disease Control and the Oregon Health Authority warn cities that evicting encampments during the pandemic poses a threat to public health, and unhoused individuals were originally told to shelter-in-place along the Bear Creek Greenway for the duration of the pandemic. Displacing these communities in the middle of the pandemic is unacceptable.

Once evicted from their encampments, where are people supposed to go? This is the question we've heard from many unhoused neighbors, including our friend Christine-Marie. Christine-Marie currently lives in a tent along the Greenway, but she has tried to follow the guidance of Medford's new ordinance — which allows for individuals to sleep up to 24 hours on city sidewalks, provided that they do not use a tent.

Here is Christine-Marie sleeping in a small wagon with her service animal on Poplar Drive in Medford. "Cars are driving by and I'm getting ugly looks," she said. "How are people supposed to sleep like this?"

In response to unhoused neighbors asking us where are they allowed to sleep now that police raids have started along the Bear Creek Greenway, the Housing Justice Alliance wrote a letter to the City of Medford, asking them to provide a map outlining the public properties where unhoused individuals are legally allowed to sit, lie down, and sleep. The City of Pendleton provided their unhoused residents with similar map, but Medford has not yet.

The uncertainty of where to go alongside the elevated threat of police harassment and evictions is taking its toll on our unhoused neighbors. "People are really stressed out from being evicted and the anticipation of being evicted," says Melissa Jones, who runs the Stabbin Wagon Mobile Harm Reduction in Medford. "Not knowing where they're going to go after they get raided, people are having mental health challenges."

Our unhoused neighbors were told to shelter-in-place along the Bear Creek Greenway for over a year, and it is inhumane to evict people with only a few days notice.

Call to action! We must continue to ask the City of Medford for a detailed map of where people are legally allowed to lie down and sleep within city limits.

Please write to Medford City Manager Brian Sjothun and Deputy City Manager Kelly Madding, requesting that they release a detailed map that clearly outlines where unhoused individuals are legally allowed to rest. Write to Kelly.Madding@cityofmedford.org and Brian.Sjothun@cityofmedford.org, and make your subject line "Where are people supposed to go? Our unhoused neighbors need a detailed map."

We are grateful for your continued support of our fight against Medford's inhumane ordinance. Please continue to share articles and images from the frontlines of Medford's War on the Poor. Siskiyou Street News and Rise & Resist Southern Oregon raised over $2,000 for tents and sleeping bags last week, which are currently being distributed here in Medford.

And in case you missed it... Medford's inhumane anti-survival ordinance, which threatens individuals with up to 30 days in jail and a $500 fine for living in a tent, was featured story a recent issue of Street Roots, the street paper in Portland, Oregon. The article by Hanna Merzbach<<https://u1584542.ct.sendgrid.net/ss/c/atcYNHk4Eh2YdGnwBh-YDI0LQhL-4hweUxYkANYpITwJFk71rr1sUwtDrcJhtLzeWVCp7BvASK>> is a thorough look at the issues.

Citing concerns about public health and the ineffectiveness of Medford's criminalization, the National Homelessness Law Center also wrote the City of Medford a letter last week, advising them against encampment raids.

"Rather than waste tax dollars on enforcement of a legally suspect ordinance and on expensive encampment evictions when many people have literally no place to go," the letter from NHLC legal director Eric Tars stated, "the City's interests are better served by providing its vulnerable unhoused residents with opportunities for adequate shelter and stability using federal dollars."

This is what we are fighting for, and we will continue. Thanks for your support.

We're finalizing a map of where people cannot camp. We're going to send that along with the ordinance that outlines the restrictions.

Unless directed by you and the Council, that is all we're planning on doing or should do.

Medford began evicting individuals from their encampments along the Bear Creek Greenway last week. As Sydney Dauphinais reported in a piece for Jefferson Public Radio, the local NPR affiliate:

"Medford Police said the people who were evicted 'accepted transitional shelter options, or made other arrangements.' [But according to local housing advocates,] the provided options were insufficient... 'other arrangement' seems code for 'we just pushed them elsewhere along the greenway' or 'they're now sleeping in a parking lot' or 'they now have a hotel voucher that they can't use because they don't have an ID.'"

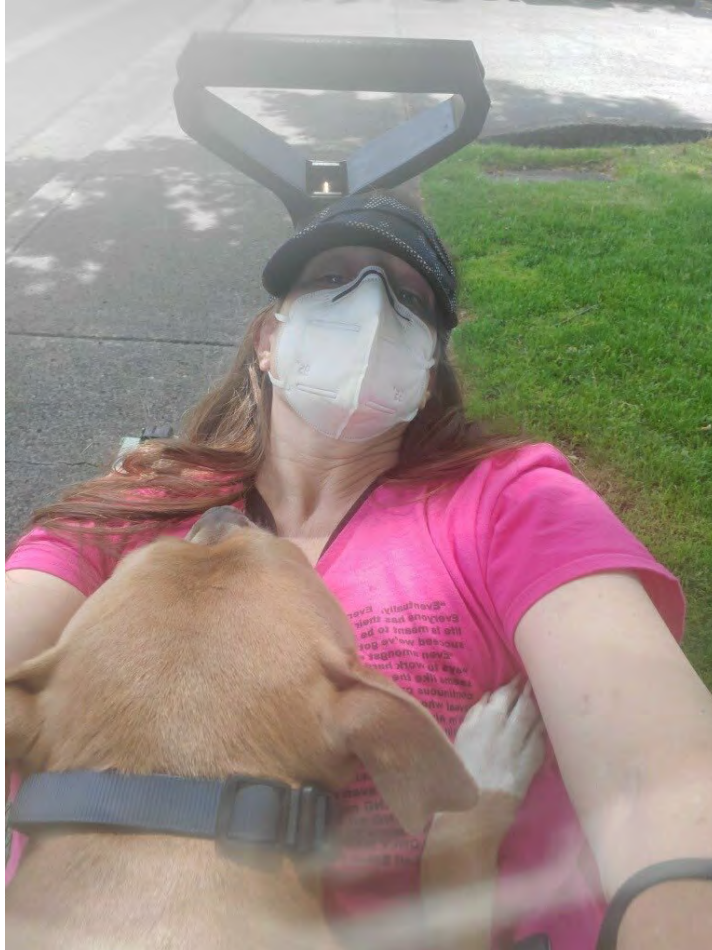

Medford police evicting an encampment on May 6th

Last week's evictions took place while Jackson county was at the "Extreme Risk" level for coronavirus. The Center for Disease Control and the Oregon Health Authority warn cities that evicting encampments during the pandemic poses a threat to public health, and unhoused individuals were originally told to shelter-in-place along the Bear Creek Greenway for the duration of the pandemic. Displacing these communities in the middle of the pandemic is unacceptable.

Once evicted from their encampments, where are people supposed to go? This is the question we've heard from many unhoused neighbors, including our friend Christine-Marie. Christine-Marie currently lives in a tent along the Greenway, but she has tried to follow the guidance of Medford's new ordinance — which allows for individuals to sleep up to 24 hours on city sidewalks, provided that they do not use a tent.

Here is Christine-Marie sleeping in a small wagon with her service animal on Poplar Drive in Medford. "Cars are driving by and I'm getting ugly looks," she said. "How are people supposed to sleep like this?"

In response to unhoused neighbors asking us where are they allowed to sleep now that police raids have started along the Bear Creek Greenway, the Housing Justice Alliance wrote a letter to the City of Medford, asking them to provide a map outlining the public properties where unhoused individuals are legally allowed to sit, lie down, and sleep. The City of Pendleton provided their unhoused residents with similar map, but Medford has not yet.

The uncertainty of where to go alongside the elevated threat of police harassment and evictions is taking its toll on our unhoused neighbors. "People are really stressed out from being evicted and the anticipation of being evicted," says Melissa Jones, who runs the Stabbin Wagon Mobile Harm Reduction in Medford. "Not knowing where they're going to go after they get raided, people are having mental health challenges."

Our unhoused neighbors were told to shelter-in-place along the Bear Creek Greenway for over a year, and it is inhumane to evict people with only a few days notice.

Call to action! We must continue to ask the City of Medford for a detailed map of where people are legally allowed to lie down and sleep within city limits.

Please write to Medford City Manager Brian Sjothun and Deputy City Manager Kelly Madding, requesting that they release a detailed map that clearly outlines where unhoused individuals are legally allowed to rest. Write to Kelly.Madding@cityofmedford.org and Brian.Sjothun@cityofmedford.org, and make your subject line "Where are people supposed to go? Our unhoused neighbors need a detailed map."

We are grateful for your continued support of our fight against Medford's inhumane ordinance. Please continue to share articles and images from the frontlines of Medford's War on the Poor. Good evening,

They have this scheduled for 5 o'clock today at Vogel Plaza. Melissa Jones has not posted anything about this event. It was only shared to the Hawthorne Community group by a female that has not yet been associated with previous protests. The facebook event shows 24 people as going and 27 people interested. Only the event host is able to see who is attending/interested.

The group organizing this event (Oregon District 2-Indivisible) is the same group that arranged the pipeline protest at the BLM office and the We Care campaign at the hospitals during the vaccine mandate. According to the group's Facebook page, the event will run from 5-6 in alignment with the national women's march. There is no mention in posts or comments about marching/going mobile. I have the cameras at Vogel Plaza up and am monitoring social media. There appears to be about 30-40 people there now.

Sergeants & Corporals,

Please take a look at the attached operational plan for tomorrow's event at City Hall, "Rave against Rogue Retreat." I have yet to actually speak to Johnna at ECSO, so the supervisor information in this plan for ECSO is pending.

Please take a look and forward this to your personnel who are involved. We will be in our designated areas at 1645 hours. Sgt. Venables will coordinate the exterior resources. I will be inside with our interior resources. The interior resources will remain through the City Council meeting, as necessary. The exterior resources can be released when the crowd disperses.

If you have any questions at this point, please let me know.

Sergeants & Corporals,

Please take a look at the attached operational plan for tomorrow's event at City Hall, "Rave against Rogue Retreat." I have yet to actually speak to Johnna at ECSO, so the supervisor information in this plan for ECSO is pending.

Please take a look and forward this to your personnel who are involved. We will be in our designated areas at 1645 hours. Sgt. Venables will coordinate the exterior resources. I will be inside with our interior resources. The interior resources will remain through the City Council meeting, as necessary. The exterior resources can be released when the crowd disperses.

If you have any questions at this point, please let me know.

For my Friday folks!

Lipscomb will be holding over to monitor and assess the event in Vogel plaza tonight. It's organized by the RV Pepper Shakers so it will be the typical attendees- Melissa Jones and crew. So far there isn't a lot of traction and no event posted in FB. The information has been shared several times and I would expect a decent number of people, but in the past they have stood in Vogel Plaza held signs and chanted. There is an event in Ashland at 7:00 p.m. in the plaza so hopefully that is where the majority of folks will end up.

I will forward any additional information from Emmily. Please let me know if you need anything else.

Thank you!

Good afternoon,

The initial post advertising tonight's protest has been shared 99 times across personal pages and some groups. Of the shares visible to me, only one had a concerning comment attached with it (below). [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED] lives at [REDACTED] and has limited priors [REDACTED] I have not seen any comments about going mobile/marching.

An event was not made for this protest, so I am unable to gauge attendance. Melissa Jones has posted that she will be there and shared the details about the event on each of the groups she is associated with. A protest has also been planned at 1900 hours in Ashland by Women's March Southern Oregon and Oregon District 2 Indivisible (the same group that did the We Care campaign at the hospitals during COVID). This event has 12 people going and 26 interested. There is also a protest scheduled in Grants Pass at 5.

The Ashland protest group commented about their protest on the Medford protest page, but there has been no public discussion about merging groups or changing plans.

Thank you,

Good morning,

It looks like they are planning an event tonight at Vogel Plaza at 1800 hours. This post has been shared on 5 personal pages and has been posted on the group's Instagram page as well. This is the only Medford event I am seeing so far. Protests have also been suggested in Grants Pass and in Ashland, those posts have not yet generated much activity. I'm not seeing an event page for the Medford protest yet. I will continue to monitor.

Subject: Vogel Plaza Protest 06/24 @ 1800

Good afternoon,

The initial post advertising tonight's protest has been shared 99 times across personal pages and some groups. Of the shares visible to me, only one had a concerning comment attached with it (below). [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED] lives at [REDACTED] and has limited priors [REDACTED]. I have not seen any comments about going mobile/marching.

An event was not made for this protest, so I am unable to gauge attendance. Melissa Jones has posted that she will be there and shared the details about the event on each of the groups she is associated with. A protest has also been planned at 1900 hours in Ashland by Women's March Southern Oregon and Oregon District 2 Indivisible (the same group that did the We Care campaign at the hospitals during COVID). This event has 12 people going and 26 interested. There is also a protest scheduled in Grants Pass at 5.

The Ashland protest group commented about their protest on the Medford protest page, but there has been no public discussion about merging groups or changing plans.

Thank you,

Good morning,

It looks like they are planning an event tonight at Vogel Plaza at 1800 hours. This post has been shared on 5 personal pages and has been posted on the group's Instagram page as well. This is the only Medford event I am seeing so far. Protests have also been suggested in Grants Pass and in Ashland, those posts have not yet generated much activity. I'm not seeing an event page for the Medford protest yet. I will continue to monitor.

The RV Pepper Shakers are the organizers of this event. I'm only seeing this on the RV Pepper Shakers Facebook page. The post has been shared on 3 personal pages and has 14 likes (2 of which are Melissa Jones and the RV Pepper Shakers). The RP in the call below is the pastor of First Baptist Church of Phoenix and part of the RV Salt Shakers. The RV Pepper Shakers are familiar with White and have posted about him several times. The two groups have previously protested around each other in front of Planned Parenthood. An event has not been made for this protest.

CALL TO ACTION - THURSDAY JUNE 30TH 2019 Aero Way Ste 103, Medford, OR 97504
THE PREGNANCY CENTER (FAKE ABORTION CLINIC), BRING YOUR VOICE, A SIGN AND YOUR ANGER

I've stated before that Oregon is not at risk of losing or reproductive rights anytime soon but in Oregon still lies a prominent threat to reproductive choices. The pregnancy center what is referred to as a "crisis pregnancy center" one of the many fake abortion clinics in Oregon. They do not offer medical services (abortion, physical check ups, imunizations) but claim to offer "other medical services" (whatever that means)

We're calling for our friends and other folks that believe crisis pregnancy centers should be shut down and be a thing of the past to show up THURSDAY JUNE 30TH AT 1PM and show how unwelcome these clinics are!

This is just a heads up from a citizen named Brett White. He called today to advise that there is a protest planned to take place this Thursday June 30th at 1300 hours. The location is the Pregnancy Center located at 2019 Aero Way #103. White stated the Pregnancy Center officers non-abortive pregnancy support to women and he claimed these centers have been being vandalized during these protests. He stated he is with a counter protest group and they plan to be at the Pregnancy Center to ensure the building is not damaged.

Thanks, Antley

Below and attached is information in regards to tomorrow's protest at the Pregnancy Center.

I will be working this detail with Officer Vega, McDonald, and Jackson. We'll assess it and ask for additional resources if needed.

I wanted to keep you all in the loop as to the information we have at this point.

Thank you!

The RV Pepper Shakers are the organizers of this event. I'm only seeing this on the RV Pepper Shakers Facebook page. The post has been shared on 3 personal pages and has 14 likes (2 of which are Melissa Jones and the RV Pepper Shakers). The RP in the call below is the pastor of First Baptist Church of Phoenix and part of the RV Salt Shakers. The RV Pepper Shakers are familiar with White and have posted about him several times. The two groups have previously protested around each other in front of Planned Parenthood. An event has not been made for this protest.

CALL TO ACTION - THURSDAY JUNE 30TH 2019 Aero Way Ste 103, Medford, OR 97504
THE PREGNANCY CENTER (FAKE ABORTION CLINIC), BRING YOUR VOICE, A SIGN AND YOUR ANGER

I've stated before that Oregon is not at risk of losing or reproductive rights anytime soon but in Oregon still lies a prominent threat to reproductive choices. The pregnancy center what is referred to as a "crisis pregnancy center" one of the many fake abortion clinics in Oregon. They do not offer medical services (abortion, physical check ups, immunizations) but claim to offer "other medical services" (whatever that means)

We're calling for our friends and other folks that believe crisis pregnancy centers should be shut down and be a thing of the past to show up THURSDAY JUNE 30TH AT 1PM and show how unwelcome these clinics are!

(Linked is my previous post about the pregnancy center)

This is just a heads up from a citizen named Brett White. He called today to advise that there is a protest planned to take place this Thursday June 30th at 1300 hours. The location is the Pregnancy Center located at 2019 Aero Way #103. White stated the Pregnancy Center officers non-abortive pregnancy support to women and he claimed these centers have been being vandalized during these protests. He stated he is with a counter protest group and they plan to be at the Pregnancy Center to ensure the building is not damaged.

Thanks, Antley

The side effects and risks of Methotrexate & Misoprostol include the following:

- Cramping, nausea, diarrhea, heavy bleeding, fever
- The procedure is unsuccessful approximately 5% of the time with the potential of requiring an additional surgical abortion procedure to complete the termination.

What are the side effects and risks related to dilation and extraction?

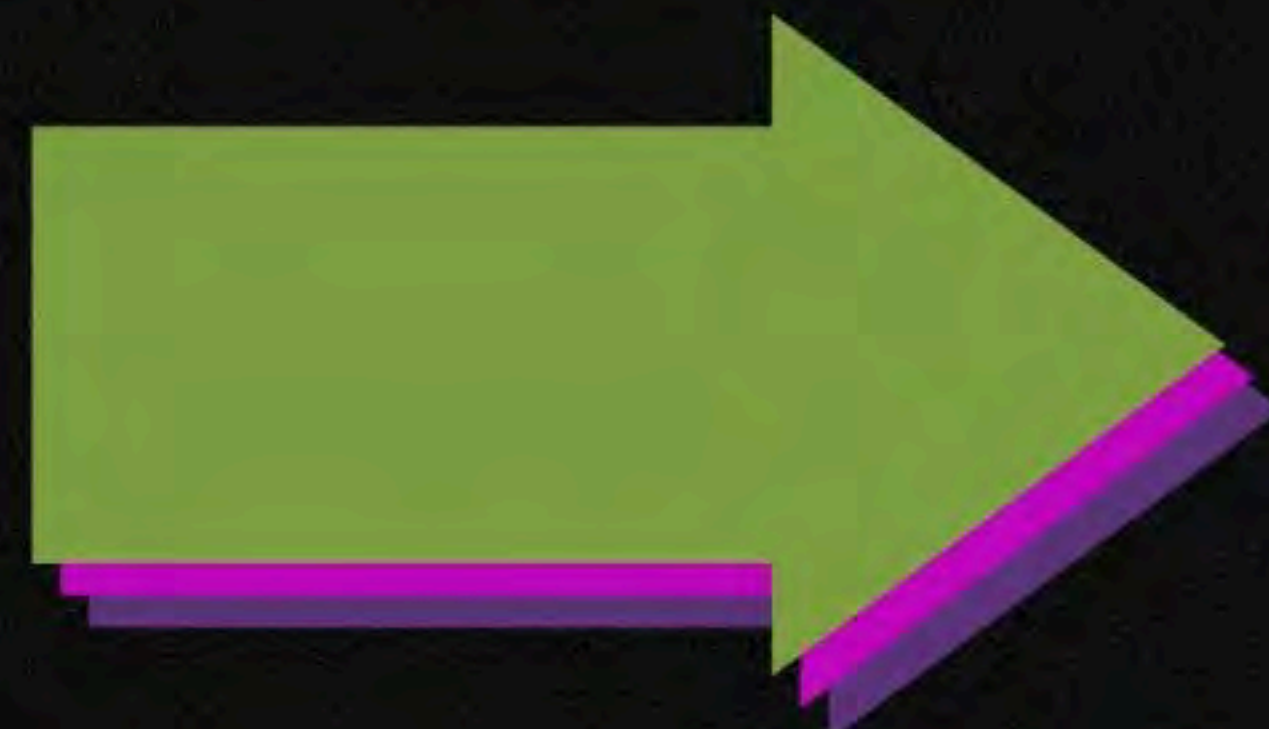

The side effects are the same as dilation and evacuation. However, there is an increased chance of emotional problems from the reality of more advanced fetal development. Contact your healthcare provider immediately if your symptoms persist or worsen.

THE PREGNANCY CENTER ALSO HAS A MOBILE UNIT CALLED "THE STORK VAN" WHICH THEY TAKE TO PLANNED PARENTHOOD TO DRIVE PATIENTS AWAY FROM SEEKING CARE AT AN ACTUAL MEDICAL FACILITY

Jon and Casie Peterman are unhinged and dangerous. Literally every Salt Shaker has shown a propensity towards dangerous far-right violent ideologies.

Jon Peterman owns an art company (where he makes all the signs and stickers which he vandalizes across Medford) Here's that info, go ahead and give that a review:

"Jon Peterman Artistry and Design"

Casie Peterman is by her words, Jon's house wife. She travels with Brett White, the pastor of First Baptist Church of Phoenix and fellow RV Salt Shaker often.

facebook/FirstBaptistPhoenix

You might know their friends from the news or jail, Trevor Emptage (arrested for burning a foster baby), Jon Clement (arrested for shooting shotguns into a park), and Ryan Clark (also arrested for shooting shotguns into a park), Mason Goodknight (current Douglas County Sheriff DPSST#31985 🗿 and head of CORE, a front group that was notably used to allow the RV Salt Shakers to march in Ashland parades when their permits were denied), and Benjamin Steers (arrested for DUI and reckless driving).

Casie May called the police failing to mention anything about a knife. Ashland Police Department (Lisa Evans #45185), arrived on the scene, yelled at an LGBTQIA ally who was holding a Pride flag, then another officer got in the LGBTQ person's face yelling at them (it was either Jason Daoust (#48097) or Steve MacLennan (#24599) who both arrived on the scene). The LGBTQIA ally was coerced by police to leave after the threats (from the police and Casie). Police did not file any report and police did not investigate the threat with the knife.

Interestingly, all of these Ashland Police Department officers did take a hastily put together bias training 4 days after George Floyd's death (the training was on 6/29). So its becomming more and more clear that these trainings were for PR only.

For example: The prohibitive camping notification got emailed at 8:53am this morning. I've been trying to relocate people to shelters all day (that are all full). The text notification announcing shelter was open was at 2:14pm, City of Medford twitter was at 2:39pm and Facebook was approx 2:54pm.

It's snowing right now I'm trying to assist folks as best I can. It seems the same urgency, time, energy and consideration for posting prohibitive camping notices should be included in letting folks know about the Shelter being open.

So when I'm told to "sign up for the text updates" as a solution, it's not helpful.

Hi there,

Is there a shelter in place exception when the city has declared emergency weather? Or is it just that the tent ban is temporarily lifted?

I've called all the shelters today and there are zero available spots. I am working with some folks willing to relocate, do you have places you'd like me to take them? Will the warming shelter be open tomorrow night as well?

Thanks in advance for clarifying!

Hi there,

Is there a shelter in place exception when the city has declared emergency weather? Or is it just that the tent ban is temporarily lifted?

I've called all the shelters today and there are zero available spots. I am working with some folks willing to relocate, do you have places you'd like me to take them? Will the warming shelter be open tomorrow night as well?

Thanks in advance for clarifying!

Hi there,

Is there a shelter in place exception when the city has declared emergency weather? Or is it just that the tent ban is temporarily lifted?

I've called all the shelters today and there are zero available spots. I am working with some folks willing to relocate, do you have places you'd like me to take them? Will the warming shelter be open tomorrow night as well?

Thanks in advance for clarifying!

For example: The prohibitive camping notification got emailed at 8:53am this morning. I’ve been trying to relocate people to shelters all day (that are all full). The text notification announcing shelter was open was at 2:14pm, City of Medford twitter was at 2:39pm and Facebook was approx 2:54pm.

It’s snowing right now I’m trying to assist folks as best I can. It seems the same urgency, time, energy and consideration for posting prohibitive camping notices should be included in letting folks know about the Shelter being open.

So when I’m told to “sign up for the text updates” as a solution, it’s not helpful.

Hi Justin and Scott:

We learned today that OHA awarded a $1.5 million grant to Stabbin Wagon in November to run a peer respite center. Melissa Jones will receive the funding in the next month or so. Everyone is in shock over this because it was completely under the radar and there has been no communication. Community partners are concerned for several reasons, but most concerned that the funds will be used to create a safe injection site.

I just wanted to make you aware and will share any news I hear.

Lori,

Thank you for that update. I had seen/heard there was a grant awarded, but the amount I previously saw was about half that amount (if I remember correctly). My concern, like yours, is that the grant money is utilized as intended. I'm not sure what oversight is going to be in place at the state level for auditing the use of the grant funds.

Hi Justin and Scott:

We learned today that OHA awarded a $1.5 million grant to Stabbin Wagon in November to run a peer respite center. Melissa Jones will receive the funding in the next month or so. Everyone is in shock over this because it was completely under the radar and there has been no communication. Community partners are concerned for several reasons, but most concerned that the funds will be used to create a safe injection site.

I just wanted to make you aware and will share any news I hear.

Thank you, Scott. Stabbin Wagon received about $500,000 from the M110 funds. The oversight will be from OHA and will be based on what is reported to them. It's very concerning.

Lori,

Thank you for that update. I had seen/heard there was a grant awarded, but the amount I previously saw was about half that amount (if I remember correctly). My concern, like yours, is that the grant money is utilized as intended. I'm not sure what oversight is going to be in place at the state level for auditing the use of the grant funds.

Hi Justin and Scott:

We learned today that OHA awarded a $1.5 million grant to Stabbin Wagon in November to run a peer respite center. Melissa Jones will receive the funding in the next month or so. Everyone is in shock over this because it was completely under the radar and there has been no communication. Community partners are concerned for several reasons, but most concerned that the funds will be used to create a safe injection site.

I just wanted to make you aware and will share any news I hear.

Yep, OHA did get an earful. I wasn't going to inform others until I had a little more info. This could blow up into an interesting media sh*t show. If anything, giving her 1.5 million might help blow things up faster.

Talked with Kristen Donheffner at OHA – they gave Stabbin Wagon a grant for $600,000 for mobile service (of which only $300,000 has been sent - rest will come in quarterly payments). This is Measure 110 money they are using for vans to do community harm reduction).

She knew very well about issue with Melissa referred to her as odd.

She has a meeting this afternoon that may shed more light on funding source and she will let me know.

Hi Justin and Scott:

We learned today that OHA awarded a $1.5 million grant to Stabbin Wagon in November to run a peer respite center. Melissa Jones will receive the funding in the next month or so. Everyone is in shock over this because it was completely under the radar and there has been no communication. Community partners are concerned for several reasons, but most concerned that the funds will be used to create a safe injection site.

I just wanted to make you aware and will share any news I hear.

Hi Cindy,

Yoni passed along your email – I'm one of the Measure 110 program managers and we suspect your client may be one of our grantees. Can you provide a few more details so I can confirm their funding source and how I can assist? Feel free to give me a call at 971-599-0422 or we can schedule a Teams call to chat.

Best,

Kristen

Hi Yoni –

I am wondering who one of my clients can contact at OHA regarding a grant that was provided to a peer respite center in Southern Oregon that has other non-profits in the area pretty upset. I work with the City of Medford and we are just looking for some direction.

Thanks!
Cindy

Ms. Burns,

I was told you were the point of contact with OHA regarding a recent grant award to the "Stabbin Wagon" who is based out of Medford. I was wanting to find out information about the grant, what the application process was, and what the oversight of the grant funding looks like moving forward. If you have a second to talk it would be greatly appreciated. My direct line is (541) 774-2234.

Thank you for your time,

Hi Justin,

I have lots of concerns about this grant in general, but specifically OHA won't be able to tell what is happening locally and operationally. Funding recipients typically are required to report on expenditures and outcomes (such as the number of people served, how long they stayed, etc.). OHA will not be able to tell what the condition of the house is or the activities that are taking place there.

I hope this helps!

Good Afternoon,

Thank you for joining us to go over respite possibilities in Oregon. Attached is Kendall's presentation on adult peer-run respite. The brief temperature check I got at the end was there is a desire for more meetings on a regular basis. Moving forward, the hope is to use this space to learn about respite opportunities in Oregon, hear feedback from folks on the ground, and discuss how to overcome barriers to respite in Oregon. I would like to set up a meeting a month out and present on the youth and family respite programs and the barriers faced there. However, this is really a space being carved out for you all. So, please let me know your thoughts!

If all agree, I will get something on the schedule for next month, giving you all some time to think of feedback, possible topics and partners to pull in ??.

Enjoy the weekend!

Thanks,

Brian

Think twice before clicking on links or opening attachments. This email came from outside our organization and might not be safe. If you are not expecting an attachment, contact the sender before opening it.

Thank you for reaching out. Maybe we can connect by phone on Monday if that works. I was hoping to have Lieutenant Kirkpatrick, who supervises our Livability Team available for the conversation.

Take care and hopefully we can talk soon,

Justin

Hello,

I appreciate you reaching out to us. I would appreciate the chance to learn more about your experiences with the Stabbin Wagon and the concerns you have about their plans to operate a peer respite center. Kendall forwarded the message that includes your cell number and I will attempt to reach you by phone tomorrow. Is there a time that would be best for me to call? Or would you prefer to set up a time using zoom or teams?

Thanks,

Brandy L. Hemsley

No worries at all, I'm glad you got to spend that time with your son! I ended up being out sick yesterday and today I'm out for jury duty. (Grand jury so there's some sitting around... which is why I'm catching up on emails right now!)

We can try to connect Thursday or Friday if you want? I'm free tomorrow from 830-9 and 4-5. On Friday I'm free from 8:30-11:30. If none of those times work I can rearrange some things to accommodate your schedule, just let me know.

Hello,

I appreciate you reaching out to us. I would appreciate the chance to learn more about your experiences with the Stabbin Wagon and the concerns you have about their plans to operate a peer respite center. Kendall forwarded the message that includes your cell number and I will attempt to reach you by phone tomorrow. Is there a time that would be best for me to call? Or would you prefer to set up a time using zoom or teams?

Thanks,

Hi there, I tried to call but you were unavailable. I am headed to Bend this afternoon so I was going to see if Lt. Geoff Kirkpatrick could maybe get a minute to talk with you in the next day or two.

Take care,

Justin.

Hello,
I'm sorry I missed you. I ended up being out of the office yesterday and was in back-to-back meetings all day today.

I'm in the office and will keep a close eye on my phone for the rest of the week; I appreciate you being so patient, hopefully I'll be able to connect with you or Lt. Kirkpatrick soon.

I'm leading some meetings in the morning, so it would be more difficult for me to step away for a phone call, but if you or Lt. Kirkpatrick call between about 11am and 3pm, or between 3:30 and 6 I should be able to answer.
